Process Flow

1. Type
learnerprofiler.com

The screenshot shows a web browser at learnerprofiler.com. The address bar contains the URL, which is circled in blue. A yellow callout bubble points to it with the text "1. Type learnerprofiler.com". The page has a dark blue header. Below it, a welcome message reads: "Welcome to our portal for assessment and evaluation. If you are looking for information about our products, please CLICK HERE." The main content area features a "Client Code Login" form. The form has a text input field labeled "Enter Client Code:" which is circled in blue. A yellow callout bubble points to it with the text "2. Type the client code". Below the input field is a grey "Go" button, also circled in blue. A yellow callout bubble points to it with the text "3. Click on the Go button". Below the button is a link that says "What is my Client Code?". At the bottom left, the copyright notice "© 2026. Learner Profiler" is visible. At the bottom right is the "LEARNER PROFILER" logo.
